

The Gillamii Centre aims to lead and inspire our agricultural community and the community at large to be involved with sustainable land use through training, education and knowledge.

We wish to encourage and lead in the efficient use of resources across the community while protecting and enhancing the natural environment.

See our new Farming in a Variable Climate website with YouTube clips of how local famers are dealing with seasonal variation.

Strategic Plan Document