We are a not-for-profit Grower Group based in the Great Southern region of Western Australia, with offices located in the township of Cranbrook, managed by a volunteer committee.

Established in 1994 as the body co-ordinating the amalgamation of LCDC Groups which were previously administered through the WA Agricultural Department.

This gave Gillamii the opportunity to expand into agricultural research and extension as part of a holistic approach to landcare.

We now aim to lead, inspire and support our Community in sustainable agriculture.
